Golden Grain Mills - Grewal

Golden Grain is a family-owned Australian brand known for producing high-quality grain and flour products rooted in traditional agricultural expertise and modern quality standards. Based in Victoria's rich grain-growing region, Golden Grain sources and mills premium Australian grains using time-honoured stone milling processes that preserve the nutritional integrity and natural flavour of the grain.

The brand is the result of generations of farming experience brought to Australia by the Grewal family, who have grown and processed grains across thousands of acres of productive land. This deep farming heritage, combined with a focus on quality control, sustainability, and food safety, ensures that Golden Grain products deliver consistent goodness and nutrition in every bag.

Golden Grain's range includes a selection of flours, whole grains, pulses, and other grain-based products — all crafted to meet everyday cooking and baking needs while retaining the natural benefits of whole grain nutrition.
